This course is designed to help you protect your and your company's identity. When you hear of situations involving the theft of identities, do you think, that will never happen to me? Well it can and its probably easier than you imagine. You may think that you and your company have little to protect, or that someone else will protect your identity for you. Did you know that corporate and personal identity theft increased by 500% last year? This module will give you the tools to protect yourself and your organisation by:

- Understanding how you are targeted
- Learning how to protect your identity
- Learning how to protect your companys identity
- Recognising when fraud is taking place

This e-learning course is suitable for self paced learning, distance learning and blended learning. This is an online training course and uses high quality multimedia with audio to fully engage the user.
